UNITED STATES' RESPONSE TO MR. IRISH'S MOTION TO OBTAIN RECORDED PRISON CALLS

On April 24, 2015, Johnathon Irish filed a motion to request that the Court provide all of his recorded telephone calls while he was incarcerated during his criminal case (from approximately November 2013, through mid-February 2015).¹ The Government did not request, or obtain, all of the recorded prison calls made or received by Mr. Irish while he was incarcerated; rather, the Government obtained select sets of recorded telephone calls, which were provided to Mr. Irish's counsel in discovery.

To the extent Mr. Irish wishes to acquire "all" of the recorded calls, many of which the Government did not obtain, the Government has no objection to Mr. Irish filing a request with the respective correctional facilities to obtain those materials.

¹ Mr. Irish attempted to contact the Government to obtain assent, but counsel for the Government was on annual leave.

Respectfully submitted,

DONALD FEITH
Acting United States Attorney
